If anyone could help me, that would be great. Thanks A: The following will find the last month and year parts of filename. As an assumption that the last file number after the month and year will be the year only, you can simply check if the year number is less than the last year and skip the match if so. `^(?:[A-Z]{3,}\d+)(?:-\d{4})?(?:\d+)?$` Live demo. Amber alert issued in Ballymena over missing teen (video) The Amber Alert has been issued for a missing 16 year old girl who went missing at 11am this morning in Ballymena. The alert was issued by West Belfast Police this afternoon and was sent to police and media organisations across the country. A photo of the missing person, who is described as being in her late teens, was published by The Irish Mirror. The alert reads: "16yr old female, has been reported missing from Ballymena. "She was last seen at 11.00 am today at Queens University, Crescent Road, Ballymena, BT7 6YJ." Anyone with information is asked to contact police on the non-emergency number 101, quoting reference 651 of 18/11/2018. Information can also be provided by calling Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111. 3 8 4 )
